

Form new words out of the words in brackets:

1. We painted the walls orange to up the room. (BRIGHT)
2. There are fears that the demonstration will racial tension. (HIGH)
3. Job applicants need to be able to describe their and weaknesses. (STRONG)
4. The Internet first came into in the 1990s. (EXIST)
5. The frequent of earthquakes in this area means that the buildings must be specifically designed to withstand the force. (OCCUR)
6. Many old people have a very limited to cold. (TOLERANT)
7. There are two major to his argument. (OBJECT)
8. She couldn't hide her when he asked her the same question for the fifth time. (ANNOY)
9. Most hotels here accept in dollars. (PAY)
10. Her parents demand absolute of her. (OBEY)
11. The garden will be with weeds by the time we get back. (GROW)
12. It seems the waitress has us. We need to return the money to her. (CHARGE)
13. He gets up late, and it is not for him to be in a hurry in the morning. (COMMON)
14. His boasting gets on everyone's nerves. (MODEST)
15. The potatoes are still We can't eat them now. (COOK)