

1. Read and choose the correct option

- if you are thirsty, you _____ drink some water.

should

shouln't

- We _____ a trip to the Caribbean six days ago.

started

bought

- We _____ hundreds of dolphins yesterday!

arrived

saw

2. Organize dragging the correct words to create the sentence

were doing

At eight o'clock

what

you

asked

The detective

questions

a lot of

3. Read and choose the correct option:

When my dad was young, he was a fast runner. He could

Couldn't

run two kilometers in ten minutes.

In first grade, I could

Couldn't

read in English, but now I can!

When my grandmother was a child, she was a roller-skating champion! She skate better than could

Couldn't

anybody.

Mozart was a genius. When he was little, he the piano.

could

Couldn't

play

4. Select the correct answer

Mexico is

Big

bigger

than Guatemala, but the United States

Is the biggest

bigger

country of the three.

Orangutans are

smalles

smaller

than gorillas, but spider

monkeys are the small

smallest

Giraffes are the

taller

tallest

mammals.

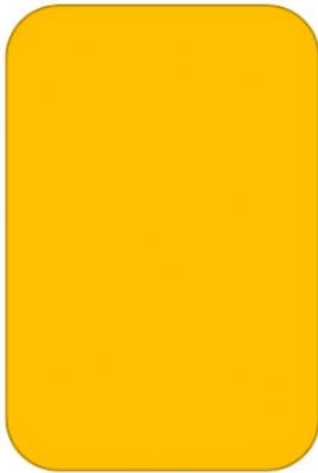

5. Read and classify the verbs. (Drag the verbs in the correct box)

Eat	Had	See	Take	Took	Was sleeping	Was making
Was stealing			Went

Present Simple

Past Simple

Past Continuous

6. Listen, read and, fill in the blanks dragging the verbs.

tents make playing fishing nicer ate

Dear Mon and Dad,

July 16, 2014

I'm having a great time at camp Horizons and I'm learning a lot!
This morning I went _____ with Terri and three new friends: Red, Ted and Jed. Red is very good at fishing, so he caught a salmon! I couldn't believe my eyes!

We then _____ fish for lunch. It was delicious!
In the afternoon, the counselors taught us how to _____ furniture. I made a nice chair. It was big. But Terri's chair was _____ than mine. Oh, well.
I'll make another chair when I get home.

We slept in _____. The first night I didn't rest much, but after that I slept like a baby.
I have to admit, Mom, that you were right about summer camp. It's better than _____ video games.

Love,
Charlie