

UNITS 1-2 (REVIEW)

1. Write sentences according to the information provided. Use Future Perfect Simple or Future continuous.

- a) We have just planted some little trees, I think that by the end of the summer / they / grow / half a metre taller

Example: by the end of the summer/ they will have grown half a meter taller

- b) I am going to buy snow boots tomorrow because at this time next week / it / snow

- c) Their plane left late because of the fog so it / not land / for another few hours

- d) The school was damaged in the flood but ...

fortunately, the builders/ finish the repairs / by the time /the school year /start

- e) Because of the storm, the power went out in most of the city on Tuesday evening. If this goes on like this...

by 7:00 PM / we / not have / electricity / for 72 hours

2. COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH THE CORRECT FORM OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS

Today, weather forecasts are quite accurate, but soon, they _____ (get) even better.

Within the next decade, satellite imagery, ocean monitoring equipment and data analysis systems

_____ (become) even more sophisticated. As a result, forecasts _____ (be) even more precise and this will have many benefits. For example, knowing about droughts in advance _____ (give) farmers the chance to plant drought-resistant crops. Forecasters

_____ (not issue) statements such as "expect rain by early evening" but

_____ (provide) specific times. According to some experts, by 2025, weather alarm systems _____ (reduce) the chances of major road accidents. People _____ also _____ (have) weather alarms at home and with their mobile phones, providing warnings of approaching storms and including maps of where to take shelter.

3. Rewrite the sentences with the words in brackets. Do not change the original meaning.

1. I'll finish my homework on Thursday (by Friday)

2. I fell the first time I had an ice skating lesson (while)

3. I was eight years old when I first saw snow (until)

4. She became a meteorologist two years ago (for)

5. I plan to travel around Canada next month (in another four weeks)
