Intermediate Grammar Practice

Choose the right tenses for the following sentences.

1. I have read your book several times.
2. By midnight you will have been dancing for 4 hours.
3. The cat jumped up into the tree and the bird flew away.
4. We will be getting married in two years' time.
5. By this time next year, I will have finished my studies.
6. My father catches the train to work every day.
7. I will return the book as soon as possible.
8. Sarah has finished all the orange juice.
9. Jack has been watching television for the past two hours.
10. For the past year Janet has been giving them money.
11. He will have been working there for 10 years by 2020.
12. She was wearing a green dress at the parade.
13. By this time tomorrow, I will have finished all my work.
14. The bus leaves when the train arrives.
15. It has been raining solidly for three days.
16. Until recently, she has been living in Scotland.
17. Rob left the office very early today.
18. Mark and Mary met in Paris last year.
19. I will help you if you if you ask me nicely.
20. She is studying very hard for her exams.
21. My mother will be spring cleaning the house today.
22. We are flying to London next month.
23. She was working for Foschini until a few months ago.
24. I will be walking to work every day next week.
25. He was devastated when his father died.
26. The birds were singing so beautifully this morning.
27. By the end of the day I will have been waiting here for 7 hours.
28. I am living in a quaint little cottage on the outskirts of Paris.

LIVEWORKSHEETS