

Click on the link to listen as you read. Select the missing words.

The Underground Home

The Underground Home is a _____ place. No one knows where it is. It is a happy, warm place. There is only one room with a big _____. Tinker Bell has her tiny room too.

Wendy is a _____ mother. She cooks and _____ for everyone. She also tells beautiful bedtime stories. The Lost Boys are happy _____ they finally have a mother. John and Michael are happy because there is a new adventure every day.

Peter Pan is a perfect father. He brings home food and _____ the family.

Wendy and Peter play with the children and laugh with them.

But one night something happens. Wendy tells the children this bedtime story:

'In the big city of London there are two _____. They are very sad because they cannot find their three children. Every night they leave the nursery window open. They wait and wait for their children to return. But they don't _____. Poor parents! They are very sad without their children.'

'Oh, Wendy, this is the story of _____ parents,' says John.

'Yes, it is,' says Michael.

Peter listens and says, 'Sometimes parents _____ their children and other children take their place.'

Wendy is very _____. 'Oh, no!' she says! 'Perhaps there are other children in our beds! John, Michael we must go home!'

'Do we really have to?' ask John and Michael.

'Yes, we've got to return home.'

The Lost Boys are sad and say, 'Oh, Wendy, please don't _____!'

'Don't be sad. You can come and live with us in London,' says Wendy.

'Oh, how _____!' the Lost Boys say. 'We can have a real family.' They jump up and down with joy. They dance around the room.

But Peter is not happy. He is very _____ and says, 'I'm not coming with you to London. I don't want to grow up. I want to be a boy forever.'

Everyone says goodbye to Peter. Outside, the pirates are waiting for them! The children come out of the underground home and the pirates _____ them. Then they take them to the Jolly Roger.

They don't make any _____. Peter doesn't know where they are.

He is sad without Wendy, John, Michael and the Lost Boys. He sits and thinks.

'Tap, tap, tap!' There is someone at the door.

'Who is it?' asks Peter.

He can hear the sound of little _____ and opens the door. Tinker Bell flies in and says, 'The pirates have got Wendy, John, Michael and the Lost Boys! They are in danger. Let's help them!'

'I must save them. Come Tink, let's go to the Jolly Roger! This time I _____ attack Hook!'

Write in your words what you think will happen next?
