

IMPORTANCE OF RAIN FORESTS

This quiz has been taken out a video on the Internet. The URL has been posted below.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nz-2Fh8LWQc>

Student's name: _____.

Instructions: First, read all items thoroughly. Then, start answering the questions. Use a pencil to begin and indicate your responses in blue or black ink ONLY in the box below.

1. Rain forest is important because
 - a. It is the habitat of lots of animals.
 - b. It is the living source for humans.
 - c. It is cool to go on vacations.
 - d. It is cheaper to live her than in the city.

2. What can be inferred when the Becca Biddle says that if animals lose the rainforest we would lose those animals?
 - a. Rain forests offer human food to those animals.
 - b. Rain forests are important for those animals.
 - c. Rain forests don't give shelter to those animals.
 - d. Rain forests aren't as important to those animals as for us.

3. Why are trees in the rain forests mainly important to us?
 - a. Because they offer enough space to build treehouses.
 - b. Because they have leaves and branches that are larger than others.
 - c. Because they provide wood to keep houses warm during winter.
 - d. Because they give us oxygen and take away the carbon dioxide.

4. Charlotte Daly says that living in the rainforest offers an opportunity to people that live there, what is that opportunity?
 - a. Their houses can be warm when cutting trees down.
 - b. Their kids can be devoured by wild animals.
 - c. Their jobs can be connected to the forest.
 - d. Their pets can be wild animals.

5. What can be inferred after Stuart Nixon said "It's better to live in a planet where wonderful species have evolved rather than just few species"?
 - a. His job in mainly in the rain forest.
 - b. His life is focused only in saving the rain forest.
 - c. His family live in the rain forest.
 - d. He prefers living among animals than people.