

Unit 5: Negative prefixes

1. Complete the sentences. Use the negative prefixes: dis-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, un-.

1. She looked ___ happy because some of her answers in the test were incorrect.
2. The number of young people who are ___employed is rising.
3. My great-grandfather couldn't read because he didn't go to school. He was ___ literate.
4. I lent you my laptop, but now you've broken it. You're so ___ responsible.
5. „The queue in the canteen is really long today. I'm not going to wait“
„Don't be so ___ patient.
6. Copying homework isn't ___legal, but it's ___honest and ___ fair.
7. Don't order CDs from that internet company. It's very ___ efficient.
8. Sometimes your work is very good and sometimes it isn't. You must try not to be so ___ consistent.

2. Complete the sentences using negative prefixes and the adjective in the box.

honest	tidy	logical	practical	legible
organised	tolerant

1. You are late again! Why are you always so _____?
2. He's _____. He never tells the truth.
3. It's _____ to be afraid of spiders.
4. She always wears _____ clothes. Last week she wore her sandals in the rain!
5. He doesn't like people who are different. He's _____.
6. What's the address on this letter? I can't read it, it's _____.
7. You never pick up the clothes from your bedroom floor.
You're really _____.