School life

Fourteen-year-old Guy Proctor goes to a secondary school in Leeds. This is his school day.

'I leave home at 8.15 and walk to school. My first lesson starts at 9 a.m. All my lessons are one hour. After the second lesson, I have a short twenty-minute break. Then there are two lessons before lunch. My favourite subjects are Science and I.T. (Information Technology).

Lunch is at 1.20. I always have lunch in the school cafeteria. Some of my mates have a sandwich but I like a hot meal. On Wednesday I have a quick lunch because I've got Computer Club.

There's always one lesson in the afternoon. It finishes at 3.10 p.m. On Wednesday and Friday, I play football after school. I'm in the school team so I often play a match on Saturday afternoon too.

I have an hour's homework every day. I usually do it in my bedroom after dinner. Today is Friday and I'm very tired. I am not doing homework. I'm watching my favourite programme on TV.
