

Exercice 1: Les mots interrogatifs – complète les définitions avec le bon mot

WHO HOW WHERE WHAT WHEN WHOSE WHY

..... permet de questionner sur un lieu ('où')

..... permet du questionner sur une date ('quand')

..... permet de demander une information sur une personne ('qui')

..... permet de se renseigner sur la cause ('pourquoi?')

..... permet de se renseigner sur l'âge de quelqu'un et ses sentiments ('comment')

..... permet de demandeur des informations complémentaires ('quoi – qu'est-ce que')

..... permet de trouver la personne qui possède un objet ('à qui?')

Exercice 2: Complète ces questions avec le bon mot interrogatif _____ is your name? I'm Peter. _____ do you live? In Paris.

_____ is your job? I'm a policeman. _____ is your nationality? I'm Italian.

_____ is your birthday? It's in November. _____ is the girl with the blond hair? She's my cousin.

_____ book is this? It's Laura's book. _____ are you at the hospital? My brother had an accident.

Exercice 3: Recopie les réponses au bon endroit. Attention: il y a des intrus dans la liste !

Yes, she does.	Yes, I do.	Yes, he does.	Yes, I have.
No, she can't.	No, she isn't.	No, they aren't.	No, you don't.

Do you like basketball ? _____ Can she play the saxophone ? _____

Have you got a dog ? _____ Are they happy to go to school ? _____

Is she good at maths ? _____ Does your sister like fish and chips ? _____

Exercice 4 : il faut répondre à ces questions avec des réponses courtes (voir exemples ci-dessus)

Do you speak Indian ? No, I _____ Do your parents speak French ? Yes, they _____

Can you play the guitar ? No, I _____ Have you got a sister ? Yes, I _____

Exercice 5 : transforme ces phrases à la forme négative

Mike can open his copybook. Mike _____ his copybook.

My cousins like playing golf. They _____ playing golf.

Mrs JOHNSON has got a red car. She _____ a red car.

Exercice 6 : transforme ces phrases à la forme interrogative

Do they like _____ going to the cinema ? They like going to the cinema.

_____ in a big house? You live in a big house.

_____ Scottish ? She speaks Scottish.

