

Week 4

English Mastery

Primary

The Write Tribe

UNIT 3
SPORTS

VOCABULARY MCQ

1. The rain was so heavy, it was raining _____.
 - a. cats and dogs
 - b. mice and rats
 - c. cats and rats
 - d. rainbows

2. I took my clothes from the _____.
 - a. cabinet
 - b. cupboard
 - c. wardrobe
 - d. oven

3. She let out a high - pitched _____ when she saw the flying cockroach.
 - a. screech
 - b. laugh
 - c. voice
 - d. chuckle

4. John was so silent, he was _____.
 - a. quiet as a rat
 - b. quiet as a church mouse
 - c. loud as a lion
 - d. fast as a cheetah

5. I _____ as fast as I can in the race.
 - a. walked
 - b. jogged
 - c. waltzed
 - d. sprinted

6. I _____ my ears to listen to what she was saying.
 - a. sprained
 - b. strained
 - c. drained
 - d. craned

The Write Tribe

7. I _____ at the top of my lungs when I broke my arm.

- a. sang
- b. chuckled
- c. laughed
- d. yelled

8. Cecilia and I played a game of hide and seek. I hid. She was the _____.

- a. speaker
- b. seeker
- c. finder
- d. hider

9. To my _____, I couldn't find my missing toy.

- a. astonishment
- b. happiness
- c. joy
- d. accomplishment

10. Vera _____ her arms wildly to call for help.

- a. swung
- b. broke
- c. flailed
- d. failed

word/phrase	meaning
humongous
engrossed
Beads of perspiration
quenched their thirst
exhilaration
feeling parched
gulp

very large	gave full attention	satisfying the need for water
excitement	foreheads wet with sweat	dry throats
swallow large mouthfuls of food or water

humongous	engrossed	quenched my thirst
exhilarated	beads of perspiration	parched
gulp

It was a balmy afternoon. My sister Jane and I decided to go to our neighbourhood stadium to play badminton. The stadium was

1. _____. It has ten badminton courts! Soon, Jane and I started playing. We were so 2. _____ in our game that we didn't notice time flying. I wiped the 3. _____ from my forehead as I smacked the shuttlecocks to and fro. Suddenly, I felt uneasy and fell down. "Did you drink enough water?" Jane asked. "No," I said. "No wonder!" Jane proceeded to grab an icy cold bottle of water. I licked my dry lips. In my 4. _____ to win the game, I completely forgot to drink water! My throat was so 5. _____, it felt like paper! I 6. _____ with a large 7. _____ of water. It felt so refreshing. I learnt my lesson to always hydrate myself with water.

1. Which word in the passage tells us that the stadium was very large?

2. Why did the author fall?

3. What did the author do to feel better?

4. Which phrase tells us the author was sweating a lot?

5. What lesson did the author learn?

Rewrite each sentence in the correct order.

perspiration the of wiped beads

I

humongous the was stadium

throat felt my parched

SPELLING. 1 BUCK

1. John was so silent, he was _____.

2. It was _____.

3. I _____ to hear what she was saying.

