This is my living-room. It's a bit messy now. There is a pillow in front of the TV. There is a cup on the bookcase. There is a comb on the table next to the mobile phone. There is a plate on the sofa. There is a knife on the carpet next to the pillow. There is a key next on the dresser next to the phone and under the clock. There is a glass in front of the radio. There is a towel on the curtain.
