

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

Simple past "Affirmative sentences"

1) Drag and drop the verb in front of each definition

Launch		To exist or live
Win		To finish first, as in a race or contest;
Become		To choose;
Earn		To come into being
Be		To proceed to the first part of (an action)
Make		To send forth, catapult, or release
began		To write (one's signature) on (something):
decide		To bring into existence by combining material;
sign		To receive in return for one's labor or service

Will Smith

2) Listen to the biography and then drag and drop the verb to complete the paragraph.

launched		was born
won		began
became		decided
earned		was
were		signed
made

Willard Christopher "Will" Smith, Jr. is an actor and rapper. He first famous in the late 1980s as the rap artist Fresh Prince. He a very successful move into movies. He is the only actor in Hollywood history to make eight consecutive films that $100 million in the USA. 'Newsweek' magazine called him the most powerful actor on the planet.

Smith in 1968 and raised in Philadelphia. His mother a school administrator and his father was a refrigeration engineer. He rapping as a teenager. His friends nicknamed him The Prince. He met D.J. Jazzy Jeff and the duo became hip-hop stars in the 1980s and early 1990s. In 1988, they the first ever Grammy in the Rap category.

In 1990, the NBC television network Smith to star in the sitcom 'The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air', which his acting career. Smith he would become "the biggest movie star in the world" and began studying box office successes. His studying paid off. His movies 'Independence Day' (1996) and 'Men In Black' (1997) both box office hits.

Smith is now one of Hollywood's hottest actors. His movies make huge amounts of money and appeal across age, race, and gender. He has been nominated for a Golden Globe, two Academy Awards, and has won many Grammys. He has also appeared in movies with his son Jaden, in 'The Pursuit of Happyness', and his daughter Willow, in 'I Am Legend'.