

We Were Liars, by E. Lockhart

Did you know?

Emily Jenkins (born 1967), who sometimes uses the pen name E. Lockhart,[3] is an American writer of children's picture books, young-adult novels, and adult fiction. Her book We Were Liars was published by Delacorte in 2014.

Chapter 2: Reading Comprehension

You can find the extract here.

ACTIVITY 1: Choose the correct option:

1. How old is Cadence?

a. 17 b. 18 c. 19

2. How many people live in her house?

a. One b. Two c. Three

ACTIVITY 2: Tick the TRUE sentences:

Cadence likes dogs.

She owns a lot of expensive objects.

Her family is rich.

She has dyed her hair.

She thinks she is pretty.

She has had an accident.

Her head hurts frequently.

She is ill because she is a fool.

Cadence's father lives with her now.

Her father was a History teacher.

He had a drinking problem.

He could ride a bike.

Cadence can kayak.

GLOSSARY:

- To own: If you own something, it is yours, it is part of your property.
- To dye your hair: to change the color of your hair.
- To have a drinking problem: to drink too much alcohol (as an addiction).

LIVEWORKSHEETS