

Roll a Question: Commas

Read the following sentence.

There are three books, but we can only choose one.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

- A. There are three, books, but, we can only choose one.
- B. There are three books but we can only choose one.
- C. There are three books, but, we can only choose one.
- D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

He is wearing a blue shirt jeans and sandals.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

- A. He is wearing a blue, shirt, jeans, and sandals.
- B. He is wearing a blue shirt, jeans, and sandals.
- C. He, is wearing, a blue shirt, jeans, and sandals.
- D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

Finally we can help the school by cleaning up litter.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

- A. Finally, we can help the school by cleaning up litter.
- B. Finally, we can help the school, by cleaning up litter.
- C. Finally, we can help, the school, by cleaning up litter.
- D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

My friend, named Lisa works with horses in Virginia.

How is this sentence correctly written?

- A. My friend named Lisa, works with horses in, Virginia.
- B. My friend, named Lisa, works with horses in Virginia.
- C. My friend named Lisa works with horses in Virginia.
- D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

The following day we went to the museum.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

- A. The following day, we went to the museum.
- B. The following day we, went to the museum.
- C. The following day, we, went to the museum.
- D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

She has straight hair yet her brother's is curly.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

- A. She has straight hair yet, her brother's is curly.
- B. She has, straight hair yet, her brother's is curly.
- C. She has straight hair, yet her brother's is curly.
- D. As it is