

Exercises:

Complete the sentences with the right comparative form, using “-er than” or “more than”:

1. Fred is Mark. (brave)
2. My sister is my brother. (funny)
3. The blue sweater looks the green one. (warm)
4. My father is my mother. (strong)
5. I am my brothers. (clever)
6. Bernardo is Henry. (rich)
7. Henry is Bernardo. (poor)
8. My boss is my colleague. (arrogant)
9. Her husband is her brother. (thin)
10. Summer is winter. (hot)
11. Mathematics is Chemistry. (difficult)
12. Chemistry is Mathematics. (easy)
13. Orange juice is Coke. (good)
14. Your Christmas tree is mine. (tall)
15. John's house is Mary's. (small)
16. I am my boyfriend. (young)
17. A turtle is a rabbit. (slow)
18. Reading a book is watching TV. (interesting)
19. A car is a bike. (expensive)
20. A cup of coffee is a bottle of beer. (cheap)
21. An airplane is a car. (fast)
22. February is March. (short)
23. A witch is a fairy. (ugly)
24. An elephant is a mouse. (heavy)
25. A mouse is an elephant. (light)
26. That man is that boy. (serious)
27. Women are men. (talkative)
28. A church is a school. (quiet)
29. The winter is summer. (cold)
30. My girlfriend is yours. (cute)
31. I think that this student is that one. (smart)
32. Reading newspaper is playing video game. (boring)
33. This chocolate cake is that one. (tasty)
34. My dog is yours. (big)
35. Tom's house is Marsha's. (large)

