LIFESTYLES

A) Listen and number the pictures from 1 – 3 according to what you hear first.

upside- down house

capsule apartment

container

Track 6 You will hear an interview with an architect called Scott Tenbury. For each question, choose the correct answer, A, B or C.

1. What does Scott say about his 'capsule' apartment in Japan?
   - A It was too small for him to feel comfortable in.
   - B There was a lot of noise from nearby apartments.
   - C He had to think carefully about where to put things.

2. Scott says that the 'upside-down' house he lived in
   - A wasn't as exciting as he thought it would be.
   - B attracted a lot of interest from tourists.
   - C needed repairing regularly.

3. How did Scott feel when he had to leave his home in London?
   - A disappointed that it became so expensive to live in
   - B pleased to escape the effects of the weather
   - C amazed that so many people wanted to buy it

4. What does Scott enjoy about living in cities?
   - A having access to facilities
   - B getting interesting jobs
   - C seeing lots of people

5. What problem has Scott had with his 'water building'?
   - A It's hard to find the right colour for it.
   - B It's difficult to build on water.
   - C It's not easy to get the right shape.

6. Why would Scott like to design a railway station?
   - A to create something people love
   - B to test his design skills
   - C to improve transport services

LIVEWORKSHEETS

MAKING INFERENCES.

A. According to the audio, answer some questions about the man's lifestyle. Choose true or false.

1. The man finds living in small houses interesting.	TRUE	FALSE
2. The man doesn't enjoy city life.	TRUE	FALSE
3. The man doesn't like to be surrounded by people.	TRUE	FALSE
4. The man likes to move frequently.	TRUE	FALSE
5. The man is always working on a new project.	TRUE	FALSE

LIVEWORKSHEETS