

LOST AND FOUND, BY OLIVER JEFFERS

Choose the verbs to complete the text:

Once boy and he a penguin at his door.

The boy where it had come from, but it to follow him everywhere.

The penguin sad and the boy it must be lost.

He at the "lost and found" office, but no one missing a penguin.

So the boy to help the penguin find its way home.

That night the boy sleep for disappointment.

He to help the penguin but he how.

The next morning he that penguins come from the South Pole. But how he get there?

They everything they need and together the rowboat out to the sea.

They south for many days and nights with the boy telling stories all the way. The penguin to everything that the boy

