knowledge by doing a different postgraduate study. Thus, I would like to be a psychologist since it will help me to tackle the students' emotional problems that finally affect their English learning outcomes. So, I am about to start the admission process to apply for the Doctorate in Applied Cognitive Neuroscience from La Costa University in Barranquilla, Colombia.

Besides my intellectual interests, I am always interested in creating new opportunities to change routines. So, transforming places into more beautiful environments is a very nice hobby for me. In fact, I would like to study virtual interior design courses but I am afraid of this not only because I do not have time, but because I am not good at doing handicrafts. I am good at generating good ideas for changing boring places into more sophisticated ones, but I need to polish my skills.

When I practice cycling, I feel relaxed, free and happier. I am not good at practicing exercises either since I am not a sport woman; so, I don't like practicing sports like basketball because I am short and fat. Nevertheless, my favorite sport is cycling and when I practice it, I feel relaxed, free and happier. I feel I can conquer the world and my favorite subject is Arts.

My family is also a very essential part in my life, despite it is not perfect I thank God because I have it. In so saying, there are four members in my family. They are my husband Ferney, my son Andres, my daughter Isabella, my mother Inés, my father Alirio, my sisters Yamile and Liliana and my smart nephews Santiago and Juan and my beautiful nieces Yuly and Luciana. Another important member of my family is my female dog Dory, it is my cute pet.

But how are they like? My husband Ferney is 41 years old and he is a mechanic. He is introverted but intelligent and a good father. He is not good at being patient with others' weaknesses; therefore, I pray for this. My older son is Andres; he is 19 years old and an English teacher in Genios Del Siglo XXI School. He is spiritual and easy going, everybody loves him. However, he is not good at being organized, he is forgetful and doubtful. Isabella is my little baby. She is 4 years old and she is enthusiastic, cute, brave and smart. Though, she is a little rude and bossy. My mother is 72 years old and my father 67 years old. They are retired. They are very different, while my mom is calm and spiritual, my father is angry and existential. My sisters Yamile and Liliana are alike. They are temperamental and strong. My nieces and nephews are introverted, I would like them to be more enthusiastic and spiritual.

Besides cycling, I also enjoy doing other activities. I like reading especially books about spiritual and psychological awareness. Thus, my favorite book is Real Magic from Wayne Dyer. I think that for reading more efficiently, it is important to choose the best place to do it, since it helps us to be more concentrated and pleased. Thus, I love reading in peaceful places, my bedroom, it is my favorite place in my house since it is painted with my favorite color- blue- and blue makes people feel calm. It is also quiet, soft, light and inspiring. I do not like to have a television in my bedroom. It makes us waste beautiful time. We can have a TV in the living room, it can join the family and have great moments together.

Apart from reading, I also love traveling; therefore, my favorite cities in the world are New York, Cancun, Playa del Carmen and Ciudad de Lima and the most fantastic places for me in Colombia are Cartagena since it is a romantic and relaxing city and Guatapé because it is peaceful. In this place, we can enjoy how colorful and symmetrical the houses are, as well as the lake and the famous people's high-priced houses and condominiums. Finally, a very small town that is amazing for me is San Francisco. It is a warm and a very relaxing town nearby Pacho.

I enjoy visiting places but I also eating. Therefore, my favorite food is spaghetti with mushrooms, crepes, waffles, lemonades and milkshakes. Thus, my favorite drink is peanut milkshake. In so saying, I like Christmas and religious movies but also comedy and romantic ones. Therefore, my favorite movie is Eat, pray and love co-written and directed by Ryan Murphy in 2010. It teaches me how to have a more balanced life. Consequently, I do not like to waste time. I think that time is an important gift given by God. With time we have opportunities to change the world's selfishness; then, we cannot waste time doing trivial things like watching TV a lot, sleeping more than necessary, eating unhealthy food, not doing exercises, etc. By contrast, it is time to travel, to pray, to be thankful, to stop being selfish and start thinking in the others' needs more than in our sadness, to know the world, to meet people from other cultures and to get to share God's word. This is the reason why I study english. This is an opportunity to approach to others and help them learn, pray, and live life.

Thus, life is a matter of deciding living, a matter of listening to dignified music like jazz, blues, opera, or if we are modern we can listen to good rock, ballad or vallenato, music that honors life. Regarding my musical interest, my favorite singer is Brayan Adams; he is Canadian. I love not only his voice but also his song lyrics. They talk about love, live, emotions and regret, what life is.

To conclude my writing, I want to emphasize that my life is simple although I do my best to make it extraordinary. I feel proud of myself, with all my weaknesses and strengths, with all my dreams and failures, with all my difference and my incomprehension. In a few words, I try harder and everyday to write and direct the film of my life since living is my motto, so, what is yours?.
