My profile

My name's Makda and I'm eleven years old. I'm from Ethiopia in Africa. My house is in a group of five small houses called a compound. There are six people in my home – my parents, my two sisters and me, and my grandmother. We haven't got a washing machine or a fridge because there isn't electricity in our compound. My mum's name is Abebe and she's a teacher. She's only at home at weekends because her school is 20 kilometres from here. My dad's name is Kafa and he's a farmer.

Our neighbours are my aunt and uncle's family. They've got six children and my cousin Teru is my best friend. She's eleven years old like me, but we're very different. I'm tall and slim and I've got long dark hair and brown eyes. She isn't very tall and she's got short curly hair and glasses. Teru is very clever and her school results are good, especially in her favourite subject, Maths. I'm not very good at school, but I'm brilliant at sport, especially running!

Our school is in a building behind the compound. There are 65 students in my class. It isn't easy to study because it's noisy. Our English teacher is Mr Helebo and his lessons are boring!

We haven't got modern things like computers, but I'm very happy. I've got some great friends and a fantastic family.
