

BLACK FRIDAY

Thursday 2005 busiest shopping season

The day after Thanksgiving is the start of the holiday _____. Thanksgiving is always on _____, so the day after is Friday. This day has come to be known as Black Friday. It has been the _____ shopping day of the year since _____.

wee discounts great deals gifts shoppers

Most stores offer _____ on Black Friday. They open their doors in the _____ hours of the morning. They try to attract _____ with big _____. Some items like TVs are much cheaper than usual. Stores hope that shoppers will buy _____ for other people while they are in the store.

demand disappointed lines low-priced

Black Friday is a great time to get good deals. The problem is that there are not enough _____ items to go around. Each store may only have a few. These items are in high _____. People stand in long _____ to get such great deals. They may line up hours before a store opens. They may be hoping to get a low price on a TV or laptop, but not everyone who wants one will get one. Some people leave _____.

violent fun eager safe toys tense crowds shoving

The situation can be _____. Some Black Friday events have been _____. Large, _____ crowds have trampled workers. Fights have broken out over _____ or people cutting in line. People have fought with one another over parking spots. But most Black Friday events are _____ and _____. Still, if you plan on going, expect large _____ and a bit of _____.

