

- 1 There are twenty verbs in brackets (). Write these verbs in the passive form. Use the Past Simple Passive because we are writing about things which were done in the past.

Here is the news:

Last night, two foreign embassies (1) (damage) were damaged by bombs in London.
Fortunately, nobody (2) (kill) Four people (3) (injure)
They (4) (take) to hospital. All of them (5) (release) this morning after they (6*) (treat) by doctors. A masked man (7) (see)
..... running away from one of the embassies.
In Milan yesterday, some new fashions (8) (show) to a special audience.
The clothes (9) (design) by teenage designers from Italian colleges.
They (10) (choose) by their teachers and their clothes (11) (wear)
..... by top models. The President (12*) (invite) to the show but he (13) (prevent) from attending by illness.
Last month, the north coast of Scotland (14) (pollute) by oil. A tanker
(15) (damage) by strong winds and its oil (16) (discharge)
..... into the sea. Fortunately, most of the sea birds which (17*) (affect)
..... by the pollution (18) (rescue) by a team of volunteers. Yesterday, the beaches (19) (open) to the public again after they (20*) (clean)