

READING

- A. Read the text below. Then tick with the corresponding symbol at the end of each sentence: + (SENTENCE UNDERSTOOD), - (SENTENCE NOT UNDERSTOOD) AND ? (SENTENCE PARTIALLY UNDERSTOOD)

EL CHIVO

He is German Guerrero, his nickname is "El Chivo", he is an empirical artist from La Peña. He is very creative in traditional arts, his main works are crafts, religious sculptures and weaving hats. He is a great sculptor, his sculptures have crossed local borders, his works are full of symbolism and peasant style, we can see his artworks in the municipalities of Junín, Cogua, Nimaima (Mule and Muleteer), Útica (Monument to the colonizers) and La Peña (Mural of horseback transportation of panela, The farmer cutting panela sugarcane and trapiches).

He is also a musician, he founded a musical group called "Último Recurso" where he was the main voice, this musical group caused a sensation in the 90s, because the typical instruments were made from recycled elements.

SENTENCES	SYMBOL
1. He is German Guerrero
2. His nickname is "El Chivo"
3. He is an empirical artist from La Peña
4. He is very creative in traditional arts

5. His main works are crafts, religious sculptures and weaving hats
6. He is a great sculptor
7. His sculptures have crossed local borders
8. His works are full of symbolism and peasant style
9. We can see his artworks in the municipalities of Junín, Cagua, Nimaíma, Útica and La Peña
10. He is also a musician
11. He founded a musical group called "Último Recurso" where he was the main voice
12. This musical group caused a sensation in the 90s, because the typical instruments were made from recycled elements.

C. Write Underline the unknown words in the text above. Then make a list of unknown vocabulary. Look up the meaning.

Unknown vocabulary	Meaning

D. Speak Work in groups. Socialize the misunderstood sentences (-) and try to discover their meaning.