A Young Farmer

At the age of four, Gavin Clark knew the names of each one of his neighbour's cows. When he was ten, he was selling chickens and eggs to his friends, and was winning prizes for them at farm shows. Now, at thirteen, he still loves farming and has his own animals.

Presents for Gavin are not a problem, every year for his birthday he gets another animal from his parents and brother. Gavin's father, Steven, works for an international company and travels all over the world. Gavin has visited many exciting places in Europe with his father, but he is happier doing his weekend job on his neighbour's farm. Last year Steven's company wanted him to move to Portugal with the family. Everyone liked the idea of living somewhere warm but not Gavin! He said he didn't want to leave his animals! In his free time Gavin plays tennis and football. Also, he goes out with his friends and enjoys computer games, just like other teenagers his age. But every morning he gets up at half past five to give his animals food and water, before he goes to school. His parents want him to go to college and get a diploma when he is sixteen, but he is not sure because he likes the farm very much. 'Let's wait and see,' he says
