Luke Baldwin's Vow Morley Callaghan
Tuesday, Dec./01/2020

Reading Comprehension. Write the letter of the best answer to each question.

1. As the story's title indicates, Luke has made a vow. To whom, and about what?
a. To Uncle Henry, to be honest and attentive
b. To Aunt Helen, to be careful
c. To his father, to learn everything he can from his uncle
d. To his late mother, to grow up honest and reliable
ANSWER:

2. The word that best describes Uncle Henry is
a. warmhearted   b. cruel
c. easygoing   d. practical
 ANSWER:

3. Luke's best friend at the sawmill and elsewhere is
a. Dan   b. Uncle Henry
c. Aunt Helen   d. Mr. Kemp
ANSWER:

4. When he watches his uncle, Luke often
a. becomes lonely for his father   b. feels timid and foolish
c. makes notations in a notebook   d. imitates his uncle's actions
ANSWER:

5. The author allows us to learn what the characters feel and think, but chiefly we learn the thoughts and feelings of
a. Dan   b. Luke
c. Uncle Henry   d. Aunt Helen
ANSWER:

6. Uncle Henry decides to have Dan killed because
a. the dog can no longer get around   b. he keeps the family awake at night
c. he is no longer useful   d. he attacks Mr. Kemp's cows
ANSWER:

7. How does Luke feel about Dan?
a. He agrees with his uncle.   b. Dan is his loving friend.
c. Dan just needs medicine.   d. Dan is not going blind
ANSWER:

8. Uncle Henry plans to get rid of Dan by
a. having someone drown the dog   b. having the doctor put Dan to sleep
c. giving Dan to a farm.   d. shooting Dan
ANSWER:

9. What does Mr. Kemp suggest Luke should do to save Dan's life?
a. Give the dog medicine for his eyes   b. Pay his uncle for Dan 's food
c. Give the dog to a neighbor   d. Beg for the dog's life
ANSWER:

10.How does Luke's uncle feel about the plan?
a. He sees it as a waste of time and money.
b. He agrees that it is a good, practical plan.
c. He Will not even listen to Luke.
d. He insists that Mr. Kemp take the dog.
ANSWER: