Oxford Repetytorium Unit 4

1 Wstaw podane niżej wyrazy i wyrażenia w odpowiednie miejsca. Dwa wyrazy nie pasują do żadnej z luk.
are allowed / can / can't / has / have / must / mustn't

Hi Liz,
Sorry I'm replying to your e-mail so late. I 1 _____ see you tonight because I 2 _____ study for a very important test in English. I 3 _____ to revise a lot of vocabulary and grammar. The good thing is we 4 _____ to use dictionaries during the test. But of course, we 5 _____ cheat. I'll get in touch with you again after the test.
Love,
Charlie

2 Napisz podane wyrazy i znaki interpunkcyjne w prawidłowej kolejności, aby powstały poprawne zdania.

1 holiday friends some go with I Dad on can , ?

_____

2 but parents I first must to talk their Yes , .

_____

3 believe but I'm in now this You Warsaw won't , .

_____

4 about course Have in heard London language our summer this you ?

_____

5 a for like meal meet or to up Would something you ?

_____

3 Dopasuj tematy lekcji (1–5) do nazw przedmiotów w szkole (A–F). Jeden z przedmiotów nie pasuje do żadnego tematu.

1 How to use a spreadsheet _____
2 Multiplication _____
3 Ancient Greece _____
4 River formation _____
5 Body organs _____

A biology
B chemistry
C geography
D history
E ICT
F maths

4 Uzupełnij zdania (1–5) wyrazami (A–F). Jeden wyraz nie pasuje do żadnego zdania.

1 I usually have lunch in the school _____.
2 We normally go to a science _____ for our chemistry and physics lessons.
3 The school you go to after primary school is called _____ school.
4 If you speak a foreign language a little, but you are not very advanced at it, you are at the _____ level.
5 You have to pay a _____ for private education.

A canteen
B fee
C intermediate
D lab
E secondary
F suite

5 [Audio track 3] Na podstawie informacji zawartych w nagraniu zakreśl literę A, B lub C.

1 At the moment, Robbie is

A visiting Ben.

B listening to music.

C having lunch.

2 Every Saturday afternoon, Joe

A plays football.

B goes shopping.

C looks after his sister.

3 Robbie is phoning Joe

A to ask for help with his homework.

B to invite him to his place.

C to tell him he can't give him a lift.