Ann: 1

Ben: Not really.

Ann: Why not? 2

Ben: Well, to start with, our car broke down and we had to wait for several hours before anyone came to help. Then we got to the hotel and found out that our room was far too cramped.

Ann: 3 Did you make a complaint to the hotel management?

Ben: 4 But the hotel was already fully booked. Anyway, we unpacked our bags and went down to the beach. But it was so dirty and smelly that we had to spend the entire holiday round the hotel pool!

Ann: 5

Ben: It is. Then, to make matters worse, 6 It was so bad, in fact, that we ended up spending a lot of money eating out every night, even though our meals were included in the price of the holiday!

Ann: No way! Did you make a complaint to the travel agency?

Ben: As soon as we got back! They offered to compensate us, but still, our holiday had already been ruined.

A Perfect City Break

- 1 Last October my best friend and I booked a short break in the famous city of Edinburgh on Scotland's east coast. We stayed at a small hotel near the city centre. When we arrived, a cold wind was blowing and there was a thick mist, but that just made the atmosphere more exciting and mysterious!
- 2 Edinburgh is an amazing city. Apart from the modern areas, it is full of beautiful historic buildings and narrow cobbled streets which add to its magic.
- 3 We didn't have time to see and do everything. We visited Edinburgh Castle and saw the Scottish Crown Jewels. Then, we explored Mary King's Close with its creepy hidden underground streets and houses. The city's poor lived there in the 17th century. There were also several traditional restaurants where they served the Scottish speciality, haggis. It looked weird but was surprisingly tasty.
- 4 We enjoyed every minute of our visit. Edinburgh is so fascinating that I definitely plan to go back one day.
