There is, there are and prepositions

What are there in the first house?

_____ a table in the kitchen.

_____a car in the garage.

_____a rug in front of the bed, in the bedroom.

_____a bath in the bathroom.

_____a TV in front of the armchair, in the living room.

_____ a table between the armchair and the TV, in the living room.

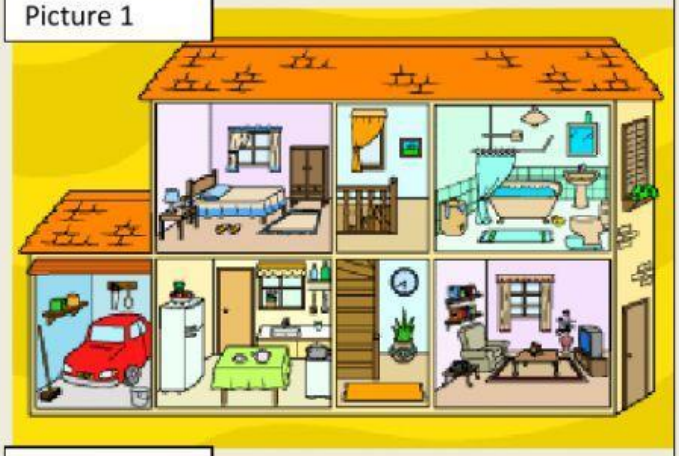

_____ a shelf over the sink beside the window, in the kitchen.

_____ two bottles on the shelf, in the kitchen.

_____ a clock over the plant next to the door.

_____curtains on the windows.

Picture 1

Picture 2

Look at the second house and fill the gaps with the appropriate preposition.

On – in - over – between – next to – behind - under

There is a tree _____the house.

There is a chimney _____ the roof.

There is a fridge _____ the wardrobe.

There is a bathroom _____the bedrooms.

There is a picture _____ the sofa.

There is a lamp _____ the sofa.

There is a washing machine _____ the laundry.

Write T for true or F for false.

There are two beds in the first house. _____

There isn't a car in the second house. _____

There are two bedrooms in both of the houses._____

There isn't a laundry area in the first house. _____

There are two floors in the second house. _____

There is a chimney in the first house. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS