

1. Complete the questions. Use the correct form of the verbs given.

- I consider (go) to visit my family in France this year.
- She finished (work) on her essay.
- Martha imagines herself (travel) to Australia next year.
- My mom misses (prepare) her waffles in the morning.
- I don't mind (cook) tonight.
- He spent his life (read) books.
- She ended up (do) the work by herself.
- Keep on (walk) until you find the North entrance.
- The owner thinks about (meet) the new employees.
- I plan on (become) an artist next year.
- She agreed on (write) a two pages essay.
- My father decided (buy) a house in the country side.
- She happened (be) interested on cats.

2. Complete the following comparisons using “(not) as...as” and the words in the chart. Make any changes in the words of the chart if needed.

eat, health	speak, clear	read, many books,	not, fair
go, soon	not, clear	Have, many sales	be, comfortable

- The professor doesn't her assistant.
- Her room mine.
- The images of her TV are my new TV set.
- Her final decision in the trial was the one we expected. I believe the accused was not guilty.
- Her husband he could, but the baby was already born when he got there.
- This shopping mall the new one.
- He doesn't his sister does. Her library is enormous!
- I don't my family. I prefer junk food.

3. Rewrite the following sentences showing that you want someone to agree with you. Remember to complete your sentences with the CORRECT PUNCTUATION when needed.

- To express an opinion: What do you think about? I think it is too long.

- To show surprise: This dish is delicious!
- To suggest an idea: We should look for another place.

4. Choose the correct option. Remember to complete your sentences with the CORRECT PUNCTUATION when needed.

- a. It's raining too much, please wear your
- b. The pattern with round spots is called
- c. A similar fabric to leather is
- d. A similar fabric to cashmere is
- e. If it is too cold it's not recommended to use a