LOS MANDATOS INFORMALES (cont.)

Informal commands (negative)
To make a negative tú command, start "no," take the	form of the verb, drop the
, and add the ending.
Opposite endings means that verbs which end in -ar, won't take th ending.	ne -as ending but instead will take the
Verbs which end in -er or -ir won't take the -es ending but instead	d take the ending.
Práctica:
1. cantar
2. mirar
3. beber
4. escuchar
5. hablar
6. escribir
7. comer
8. perder
9. dormir
10 repetir
some spelling changes to keep the original sound. You remember to For verbs that end in -car, the "c" changes to For verb , and for verbs that end in -zar, the "z" changes to a ending which will always be since these are -ar verbs!	Then we dad the opposite ending which will diways be since these die -ar verbs:
And remember this rule applies to commands	!
Práctica:
11. buscar
12. pagar
13. empezar
14. tocar
Negative commands with "ir" and "ser"
As you might imagine, ir and ser are almost always irregular! This	is true for them as negative commands too!
ir becomes No
ser becomes No

What are the negative forms of these comm	nands? (Hint: They are regular as negative commands.	Just follow the rules to make negative commands!
poner	·
tener	-
venir	-
salir	-
hacer	-
decir	-
	-
Translate these common expressions that us	se commands:
iTen Cuidado!
iVen acá! or iVen aquí!
iDime la verdad!
iNo te vayas!
iNo me digas!
iNo tengas miedo!
iPon tu libro en la mesa!		