THE SPANISH CONSTITUTION

LAW

The Spanish Constitution is the most important law of Spain.
It was signed the 6th of December in 1978.
Spain is a democracy.
Spain is a parliamentary monarchy.

DEMOCRACY

The citizens choose their representatives to direct the country
The citizens that have more than 18 years can vote the representative to rule in the Parliament

THE VALUE OF OUR RULES

- Justice
- Freedom
- Equality

PARLIAMENTARY MONARCHY

- Monarchy: there is a king
  - The king of Spain is Felipe VI

- Parliamentary: the king doesn't gov it's the Parliament.
  - The Parliament is composed of diputies and senators

FLAG

The flag of Spain was established by Carlos III.

SHIELD

It has a real crown
Some old kingdoms

RIGHTS AND DUTIES

- Rights: They are the things you can do with freedom

Example: you have right to education – Nobody can't say to you that you can't go to school

- Duties: They are the obligations Example: pay taxes

RIGHTS	DUTIES
To have education To be protected To express our ideas To have equality in the laws	To go to work To pay taxes The parents have the duty to protect their children

To associate with the people we want To have a house To have work	To conserve the environment

QUESTIONS

What day was signed the Spanish Constitution?
Who is the king of Spain?
What is a right?
What is a parliamentary monarchy?
How is the flag of Spain?

ACTIVITIES

Complete the sentences:

govern – parliamentary monarchy– 1978 – duties – law – 6th – Felipe VI – rights –

The Spanish Constitution was signed the_____of December of _____
It is the most important _____of Spain
Spain is a _____ _____, that is, we have a king, but the king doesn't_____ .
The king of Spain is _____.
In the Constitution there are rights and duties. The _____are the obligations and the _____are the things you can do with freedom.

ACTIVITIES

Write if it is a DUTY or a RIGHT

To have education
To go to work
To conserve the environment
To be protected
To pay taxes
To have a job and a house

JOURNAL

Write 4 sentences about the Spanish Constitution