

LESSON 4: A FREE PROJECT/ STRONGER THAN ME -STUDENT'S BOOK (PAGES 24 AND 25)

---

Hello, children!

ACTIVITY 1: listening

Task 1: Listen to Lovro and complete the task below with the children's names (Ana, Lovro, Dino, Eva)

- _____ plays basketball.
- _____ is talking to Ivan.
- _____ has a German class.
- _____ is surfing the net.
- _____ goes to music school.
- _____ is talking to a school psychologist.
- _____ does aerobics.
- _____ is looking for some literature on ADHD.

Say: a) what they do every Thursday.

b) what they are doing this Thursday.

(write a or b in the boxes)

Task 2: How does Lovro begin the project?

- a) With a moral.
- b) With a fable.
- c) With a discussion.

Task 3: There is a secret link between:

- a) ADHD and the English teacher
- b) The fable and the Net
- c) The moral of the fable and the project.

ACTIVITY 2: Reading and reflecting (čitanje i promišljanje o pročitanom)
Read the following and copy it in your notebook

KEY WORDS:

FABLE – A fable is a short story that tells a moral truth, often using animals as characters.

MORAL - The moral of a story is the message that you understand from it about how you should or should not behave.

And now, read the story and say: Who is more stupid, the scorpion or the frog?

ACTIVITY 3:

Think about the fable and answer the following questions:

- 1 Do you sometimes say "I can't help it. It's my nature."?
- 2 Which is more important, your nature or your mind?
- 3 When your nature wants to hit someone you don't like, what does your mind say?
- 4 When your nature says: "I can't listen to this boring lesson any more, is your mind silent?"
- 5 When your nature and your mind fight over something, which usually wins? Give an example.
- 6 Name some temptations you cannot resist. (e.g. I can't resist teasing my kid brother.)

HOMEWORK: TRANSLATE THE TEXT (Stronger than me) – NOTEBOOK.
RETELL THE TEXT.
