Belivable	More than one explanation is posible
Debatable	Likely to be untrue
Umprovable	Can be acceptable as true because it seems possible
Questionable	Can be shown to be true
Skeptic	A person who sees an event, typically a crime or accident, take place
Witness	A person who does not believe something

F WORD STUDY PRACTICE Use the adjectives from Exercise E to complete each statement.

1 His story is really _____. So many of the details sound far-fetched.

2 I think she's telling the truth. Her description of the events sounds very _____ to me.

3 Your claims are _____. It isn't difficult to find another explanation for what happened.

4 That the military found a flying saucer is _____. There is no evidence to show that they did.

LIVEWORKSHEETS