

STARTER UNIT: READY, STEADY, GO! - LESSON 2.

1. Read about Catriona. Then, look at the questions and write your blog.

My name's Catriona and I live in a small town in Ireland. It's really boring here, but we have an excellent library and two bookshops. I love reading. I want to start a blog about the books I read. I want to write a different book review every month.

Here are some questions to help you to decide what to blog about.

Where do you live?

What are your skills and hobbies?

What do you like reading?

What films do you like watching?

What games do you play?

What makes you happy?
