

Name: _____

Date: _____

Topic: The Short "O" Sound

Listen to the story below, read along where you can. Then write the answer for each question.

The Mop

Mom has to mop. She flops the mop. The mop sops. Spot wags and nods. He wants to play.

The mop hit Spot. Bip! Bop! He bit the mop. He nips the mop.

Mom is hot. "Stop! Spot do not bite the mop." Spot is not bad. He just wants to play tag.

Mom does not like to mop and she is mad. Mopping is a lot of work. She dips the mop and lobs a gob of water at Spot. Has Spot hurt the mop? Does the mop sob?

"Hop in your box Spot," said Mom. "Stop playing with my mop."

Spot taps the mop. He pats the mop. He bats the mop. The mop does not stop. It sops and slops. Spot is having too much fun to stop. Funny Spot. Mad mom. The mop still sops and sops.

Questions

1. Who wants to play?

2. What is mom doing?

3. What did Spot do after the mop hit him?

4. Why is mom mad?

5. Why do you think Spot does not want to stop playing with the mop?

6. Two words that describe mom are: _____ and _____.

7. Five short "o" words from the story are:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____