

1. Read the following sentences and then choose the correct option.

- We have got a wonderful family.
- I haven't got any pets.
- Lisa has got 11 cats.

We use the verb “have got” to:

- a. talk about actions in the past.
- b. talk about possession (things we own).
- c. talk about actions in the future.

2) Now pay attention!

2.1. Look at the underlined verbs on the board. Do they follow a rule?

- We use “have got” after the personal pronouns _____, _____, _____, and _____.
- We use “has got” after the personal pronouns _____, _____, and _____.

2.2. What happens to the verb in the negative form?

- We use after the personal pronouns I/ you/ they/ we
- We use after the personal pronouns he/ she/ it

2.3 What about questions?

- We use: + he / she / it
+?

• We use: + I / you/ they / we +
.....?