

1. I love spending the weekend at the [destination / seaside / voyage].
2. I've packed my tent and the rest of my camping [gear / excursion / square] in my backpack, so I'm ready for the weekend.
3. The [trip / voyage / expedition] to the North Pole was the most difficult and bravest thing I have done in my entire life.
4. We visited the main town [agency / sail / square] yesterday.
5. Do you want to go on a [railway station / coach trip / travel agency] to the coast next month?
6. You can get the key to your room at the [parade / inspector / reception].
7. Dan is an art [instructor / collector / hiker] and his house is full of beautiful paintings.
8. Al works at the [hiker / local / lead] library and he really enjoys his job.
9. A(n) [instructor / receptionist / hiker] needs a good pair of shoes.
10. One of the [losers / survivors / parades] told us that Jim was driving very fast.
11. We had a [guided / journal / local] tour around the city, which we enjoyed very much.
12. All the [competitors / expeditions / reports] have read their poems and now they are waiting for the judges to decide.
13. Sea [trips / voyages / hikes] took months in the old days.
14. The trip takes [highly / approximately / hopefully] five hours.
15. The three friends reached their [reception / destination / sanctuary] after driving for several hours.
16. The rainy weather spoilt our plans for a(n) [excursion / expedition / reception] to the mountains.
17. Tomorrow Rebecca and her family will watch the annual winter [parade / tour / report].
18. There were no real [hikers / tours / losers] in this competition, because everybody had fun and learnt a lot.
19. On this website you can find many history [journals / locals / survivors] that you can use for your project.
20. The [receptionists / competitors / journalists] waited for the politician outside the airport.

