

Name _____ Date _____

Similes

DIRECTIONS: All the sentences below contain similes, a comparison of two things using “like” or “as,” or “than” and other words. Write what two things are being compared then select the simile meaning.

1) Usain Bolt runs like a rocket.

Compares _____ to a _____,

This means Usain Bolt is:

- a) very slow b) very fast c) neither slow or fast

2) This pillow is just like a wood board!

Compares _____ to a _____,

This means the pillow is:

- b) very soft b) very hard c) neither soft or hard

3) Jillian has as many chores as there are stars in the sky!

Compares _____ to a _____,

This means that Jillian has:

- c) very few chores b) a great many chores c) neither few or many

3) At the restaurant, the steak was tinier than a jelly bean!

Compares _____ to a _____,

This means that the steak was:

- d) very large b) neither small or large c) very small