

SELECT THE CORRECT OPTIONS

A hotel guest died after ordering staff not to disturb him - two weeks before his body was found in his room by a maid. Kieran Truman booked a room at the Hyde Park Towers Hotel, in (northern / north / north-south) London, on July 9 this year. He told the staff he did not want them (entering / to enter/ enter) his room without permission. An investigation into the 39-year-old Truman's death found that he was discovered on the floor of his room on 23 July 14 days after he checked in after a maid noticed an (pleasant / please / unpleasant) smell from his room. Giving evidence at Westminster Coroner's Court last week, Emily-Jane said Mr. Truman was found dead in (him / her / his) was quite a smell coming from the room. The inquiry found that Mr. Truman has booked the room for a five-(month / months / monthly) period before his body was found just a fortnight into his stay. The dead man had all his bags (at / for / with) him, including a notebook filled with 'spidery writing'. Police said the death was not a (crime / criminal / criminology) and the jury Dr William Dolman recorded an open verdict.

PUT THE BRACKETED WORDS IN THE RIGHT TENSE OR FORM

An elderly couple are suing holiday giant "Thomson Package Tours" after the woman fell unconscious and her husband injured when cabin crew rushed them to 'get off the plane. Raymond Heath, 82, says his wife Constance (to be) _____ 1 now permanently a bed patient since falling down the steps from their plane. The couple said they requested special help to get off the plane when they booked (them) _____ 2 holiday to the Cape Verde. But Raymond and Constance, who both use walking sticks, claim they (not- help) _____ 3 by staff and fell down the steps when they were hurried to get off the plane. 'The pilot (angry) _____ 4 shouted at us to 'hurry up' before the passengers came out to see what caused the (to delay) _____ 5. 'When we approached the top of the steps, I spoke to the cabin crew standing at the exit with us and asked why there was no escort'. 'They replied that it was not their job. As we began walking down the steps, we hear someone shout, 'Get off the plane' and the next minute we (to lose) _____ 6 our footing and fell from the top of the stairs to the runway.' Mr. Heath (to injure) _____ 7 by the window glass and his wife was knocked unconscious. She rushed to a local hospital and was released four days later, on Christmas Day 2009, but taken back to hospital when she suffered a (danger) _____ 8 deterioration.