PARTICIPLE PHRASES!

First, underline all of the participle phrases; then circle the noun they modify. Half of the sentences are grammatically inaccurate. Re-write them correctly below (include the number).

1. While remembering her ex-boyfriend, Lily gets depressed.

   _____

2. Leaning against a wall waiting for a man, the man approaches Lily and she gives him money.

   _____

3. The gang, having nodded in agreement, takes money from the man.

   _____

4. He was hit by them laying on the floor.

   _____

5. After telling her he was just jumped, Lily invites him to coffee.

   _____

6. As they are finishing their coffee men are destroying his apartment.

   _____

7. When going to the bathroom, laxatives were put in his coffee.

   _____

8. Needing to use the bathroom he ran to the toilet only to find it filled with his clothes.

   _____

