

Life During the War (pages 270-271)

1. What did the Second Continental Congress do on July 4, 1776?

2. Some Americans believed that Britain should rule the colonies? Yes or No
3. Some Americans believed that America should be free. Yes or No
4. Someone who wanted independence for the colony was called a
_____.
5. About _____ of the Americans wanted independence.
6. Someone who was loyal to the king was called a _____.
7. About _____ of the Americans were loyal to the king.
8. Many that were loyal to the king _____ with how King George III ruled the colonies.
9. If someone did not want to take sides, they were _____.

Loyalists in America

1. Most people that were Loyalists, were afraid they would _____ if the Patriots won the war.
2. Merchants were afraid the war would hurt their _____ so they were Loyalists.
3. Some Loyalists believed that _____ was right.
4. If African Americans became Loyalists, they were offered _____.
5. _____ American Indians helped the British.
6. The American Indians wanted the colonists to stop _____.
7. What two Indian nations fought for the Patriots?
A. _____
B. _____
8. What Native American met King George III and later joined the British side during the Revolutionary War?

Patriots

1. _____ was a banker that helped the United States get loans.
2. He also was willing to _____ his own money.
3. Who became a Patriot hero of the Battle of Bunker Hill? _____