

Write the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives.

Be careful! There are no 'the's or 'than's to help you, so you need to write them down.

1. My children are so much _____ (naughty) yours.
2. Frankie _____ (hardworking) Kyle. Frankie is a straight A student.
3. Frankie _____ (hardworking) Kyle. Kyle is a straight A student.
4. _____ you ignore me _____ (close) I get. You're wasting your time.
5. Shall we invite Paul and Greg to the party as well?
6. Sure! _____ (merry)
7. I think Mrs Anderson is _____ (strict) teacher at the school.
8. Scotland _____ (fascinating) place I have ever seen.
9. The red shoes _____ (comfortable) the blue ones. You should buy the blue pair.
10. Which one is _____ ? (healthy) Starting the day with a good breakfast or skipping it?
11. It was _____ (good) option we had at that moment.
12. This situation is much _____ (complicated) you think.
13. Which galaxy is _____ (far)?
14. Without _____ (far) conversation, we started the job.
15. I had _____ (fun) I thought.

Adjective or Adverb?

1. My father drives really _____(careless) lately. I don't know where his mind is.
2. That's weird. He used to be a _____(careful) driver.
3. Do you draw _____(good)?
4. He doesn't look _____. Has he eaten anything?
5. She worked really _____ (hard) to pass the exams.
6. She _____(hard) works. All she does is gossip around in the office.
7. They play football rather _____(bad)
8. This soup tastes so _____(good)
9. That dress is _____(extreme) _____(expensive)
10. Where can I find _____(reasonable) priced accommodation around?
11. I went to bed _____(late) last night.
12. We don't see him around _____(late)
13. I have a _____(good)- paid job.
14. Beans and eggs are _____ (typical) British breakfast.
15. The train will arrive _____(present)