Do, Does, Don't, Doesn't

A. Use do and does to ask questions in the present tense. See the box below.

Do	I / you / we / they	have the right change?	Does	he / she / it	work here?
(plural)			(singular)

Complete each sentence with do or does.

1. _____she like chocolate?
2. _____it snow in Hawaii?
3. _____ you plan to become a teacher?
4. _____ Sarah and Michael skip the rope?
5. _____ he have a car?
6. _____ we study English?
7. _____ you watch Netflix?
8. _____ nurses take care of patients in the hospitals?

B. Now look at this box. Complete each sentence with don't and doesn't.

I / You / We / They		don't have the time?	He / She / It		doesn't belong here?
		(plural)			(singular)

1. I _____ know my account number.
2. We _____ like pizza very much.
3. Mark and Paul _____ like to clean the house.
4. Sue _____ have a good friend.
5. A spider _____ have antennae.

LIVEWORKSHEETS