

KEY WRITING PART 7

Read the advice box for writing a story. Then correct the mistakes in the story below.

ADVICE BOX:

- When you write a story, you should use the same tense along it (present or past), but don't mix them.
- Remember verbs need an -s when 'he, she or it' make the action.

It's the weekend. Melanie go shopping for clothes and she see a beautiful dress. It were blue with green flowers. She really likes it so she check the price. She was shocked because the dress was very expensive. But she really like it so she decided to buy it. Melanie go to the cashier and bought the dress. She think she will look great on it. It was a good shopping day.
