

Food. Countable / Uncountable nouns

I. Choose the correct option

- 1 There's a melon on the table.
- 2 _____ five children in that family.
- 3 _____ some yoghurt in the fridge.
- 4 _____ always an apple in my packed lunch.
- 5 _____ some people in the playground.
- 6 _____ a sandwich in my bag.
- 7 There isn't any bread in this shop.
- 8 _____ any girls in my football team.
- 9 _____ an airport in my town.
- 10 _____ three good hotels in the town centre.
- 11 _____ any crisps in this packet.
- 12 _____ any water in that river.

II. Complete the sentences with a , an, some, any

- Freya Have we got ¹ _____ homework for tonight?
- Blake Yes, we have. We have to write ² _____ essay.
- Freya Oh, OK. Can I borrow ³ _____ pen?
- Blake Yes, there are ⁴ _____ pens in my bag.
- Freya Thanks. Yuk! What's this?
- Blake It's ⁵ _____ sandwich. Are you hungry?
- Freya Yes, I am. But I don't want that sandwich.
- Blake OK, don't worry. We can make ⁶ _____ fresh sandwiches.
- Freya Great! Can I have ⁷ _____ cheese and cucumber sandwich, please?
- Blake Sorry. There isn't ⁸ _____ cucumber. But there's ⁹ _____ cheese. And there are ¹⁰ _____ olives too.
- Freya I don't want ¹¹ _____ olives in my sandwich.
- Blake Not in your sandwich – on the side!