Billy Smith

Billy Smith loves water – it's his passion! His hobbies are swimming and scuba diving. He likes golf too. Billy's a very lucky man because his interests are part of his job.

Billy lives in the USA with his wife, Linda. When they got married ten years ago, Billy worked in an office in New York. He hated his job. There was no time for diving or golf. Linda worked in a shop and she didn't like her boss. She hated the cold winters in New York too. So Billy and Linda decided to leave their jobs in New York and to buy a house in Florida.

Billy goes diving every day and he goes to golf courses every day. But he doesn't play golf very much – he works at golf courses now. He travels around Florida and he goes to lots of different golf courses. On many golf courses, there are lakes and Billy only goes to golf courses with lakes. Players often hit their golf balls into the water. Many balls go into the lakes and the golfers cannot find them again.

In his new job, Billy dives in the lakes for these golf balls. On some days, Billy collects two thousand golf balls. Linda has an office at home and she works there. She sells the lost golf balls that Billy finds.

Billy and Linda are very happy now. Linda doesn't have a boss and Billy's office is the golf course!
