

Planning an essay

Prompt: Plan an essay that supports the argument that technology is helpful to our society.

Persuasive argument: Yes, technology is helpful to society.

Let's state our reasons: How does technology help?

Reason 1:

Adaptive technology helps people with disabilities.

Creating Examples:

Which adaptive technology helps people with disabilities?

Planning an essay

Reason 2:

Smart technology makes it easier for people to communicate with other people and things from long distances.

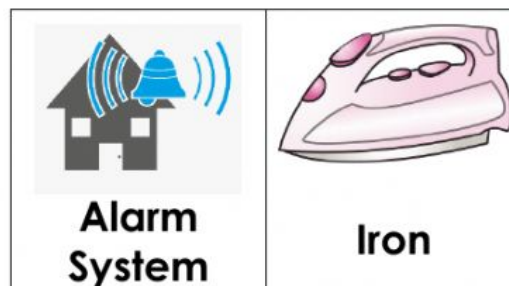

Which is smart device that help people communicate with others?

Reason 3:

Automated devices make life more convenient and safer for people.

Which automated devices make life more convenient and safer for people?

Persuasive Statement:

Planning an essay

People use technology every day. We use technology to listen to music, cook our food, and _____.

Technology has helped our society grow and it has made life a lot easier.

Reason 1: Adaptive technology is used to help people with disabilities.

Reason 2: Smart technology makes it easier for people to communicate with other people and things from long distances.

Reason 3: Automated devices makes life more convenient and safer for people.

	For example, prosthetic devices are used to support people who have lost limbs.
	For example, smart phones allow people to surf the internet, use social media and talk to each other.
	For example, security systems make sure that a person's home is safe while they are away.

Planning an essay