

POSSESSIVE CASE

RULES:

> Apostrophe – ('s)

The apostrophe is normally used to show possession, that there is a relationship between two things or that something belongs to another.

Eg. John's car (=The car of John. The car belongs to John.)

> Singular nouns even the ones ending in -s

Add: 's.

Eg. We went to Ange's house last night.

Have you seen the dog's bone?

Mr. Lewis's dog always comes into our property.

> Plural nouns ending in -s

Only add the apostrophe- '.

Eg. I went to my friends' party.

My cousins' house is always a mess.

> Plural nouns not ending in -s

Add: 's.

Eg. The children's toys are all over the room.

The men's toilet was disgusting.

* Use the Possessive Case according to the example: car/Tim - Tim's car.
