

Directions: Draw a line matching the vocabulary word to the correct definition.

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| conductor | A. the straps and fastenings by which an animal pulls a load |
| polar | B. to go from place to place without a plan |
| nougat | C. of or relating to a geographical pole or the region around it |
| flicker | D. a person who collects fares in a public means of transportation (as a bus or railroad train) |
| harness | E. a sudden jerking, swaying, or tipping movement |
| lurch | F. a candy of nuts or fruit pieces in a sugar paste |
| roam | G. to burn unsteadily or with a constantly changing light |

Directions: Pick the vocabulary word that best completes each sentence.

1. When we got on the train, the _____ took our tickets.
2. The train gave a sudden _____ as it began to move.
3. The lights on the train began to _____ as we went through the tunnel.
4. The young boy enjoyed a chocolate bar that had a _____ center.
5. We watched as Santa put a _____ on his reindeer and then hooked him to the sleigh.

