

Choose the correct answers.

1. What is the birth rate?

- A. The number of people who die in one year in a place.
- B. The number of babies born in one year in a place.
- C. The number of births and deaths in one year in a place.

2. What is death rate?

- A. The number of people who die in one year in a place.
- B. The number of babies born in one year in a place.
- C. The number of births and deaths in one year in a place.

3. How is the birth rate in Spain today?

- A. It is moderate
- B. It is positive
- C. It is negative

4. How is the death rate in Spain today?

- A. It is negative
- B. It is positive
- C. It is moderate

5. What is the natural growth?

- A. The number of people living in a country.
- B. The difference between the number of births and the number of deaths.
- C. The difference between birth rate and infant deaths.

6. How is the natural growth in Spain today?

- A. It is 0
- B. It is positive
- C. It is negative

7. What does it mean that the natural growth is positive?

- A. There are more births than deaths.
- B. There are more deaths than births.
- C. The infant death rate has decreased.

8. Choose the three correct sentences about life expectancy

- A. Life expectancy is the difference between birth and death.
- B. Life expectancy is the number of years we expect to live.
- C. Life expectancy is the number of people who die in one year in a place.
- D. People today live longer than in the past.
- E. In Spain, men have a higher life expectancy than women.
- F. Life expectancy in Spain is now one of the highest in the world.
- G. Life expectancy in Spain is now around 65 years.

9. What is a migration?

- A. The process of leaving a place to live in another place.
- B. The process of coming to live in a new place.
- C. The movement of people from one place to another.

10. What is emigration?

- A. The process of leaving a place to live in another place.
- B. The process of coming to live in a new place.
- C. The movement of people from one place to another.

11. What is immigration?

- A. The process of leaving a place to live in another place.
- B. The process of coming to live in a new place.
- C. The movement of people from one place to another.

12. What is the net migration?

- A. The difference between the number of migrants and the number of immigrants.
- B. The difference between natural growth and net migration.
- C. The difference between the number of births and the number of deaths.

13. What is the rural exodus?

- A. The emigration from the city to the rural areas.
- B. The emigration from the rural areas to the city to find work.
- C. The movement of people to a new country.

14. What are densely populated areas in Spain?

- A. The inland areas of Spain.
- B. The coastline and the Balearic and Canary Islands.
- C. The coastline, the islands and the cities

15. What is population density?

- A. The difference between the number of people and the surface area per km<sup>2</sup>.
- B. The number of people divided by the surface area (km<sup>2</sup>).
- C. The surface area divided by the population number.

16. What are the most populated areas of Andalusia?

- A. The plains near the Guadalquivir River and the coastline.
- B. Mountain areas.
- C. The coastline.

17. In what area of Spain are the provinces with the lowest population density?

- A. In Madrid, Barcelona and Valencia
- B. In the cities and the coastline
- C. In Castilla-La Mancha, Extremadura, Castila y León and Aragón.