

THE ARTICLE: A/AN OR THE

a/an complete and match

We use A/An when:

- we are talking about something/someone not mentioned before

"A man and a woman came to see you this morning."

- we are not referring to a particular thing:

"I'm looking for a job" (not a particular job)

- we talk about jobs: "He's a doctor"

- we use the expressions:

"once a week, twice a day, £12 a kilo..." "I practise karate three times a month"

- we refer to what kind of thing something is: "The sun is a star" (one of many)

We use THE:

- when we talk about a particular thing: "The man who came yesterday is here again"

- when it is clear in the situation which person or thing we are referring to: "Turn on the light"

"We should clean the carpet"

- when we talk about the usual people or places: "I'll visit the doctor" (my usual doctor). "I'm going to the post office"

- with "school" "hospital" "jail" ... when we go to visit. "I went to the hospital to visit Joe"

- when there is only one of something: "Madrid is the capital of Spain"

- with: sky, sea, ground, country, environment, same, space (when we refer to a specific space, not the universe)

"Look at those clouds in the sky" "The space is too small for another bed"

- with go to: the cinema, the theatre, the radio, the opera...
